FORMAT AND PROCESSING GUIDELINES

In preparing a thesis or dissertation for submission, the student should keep in mind that neatness and correctness in form are second in importance to accuracy and soundness of research; however, all are important in preparing an acceptable document. This handbook will assist in the preparation of the thesis or dissertation, but it is not meant to be an exhaustive manual. For specific questions of style, consult the most recent edition of the discipline-specific style guide. When using a style manual, follow the specifications for published documents. However, certain policies set forth in this handbook take precedence over those in any style manual as they pertain to this institution. Read this handbook carefully before beginning the preparation of the thesis or dissertation.

The element that contributes most to the attractiveness and readability of the thesis or dissertation is consistency in format. Consistency means the student establishes a series of conventions or protocols regarding “heading sequencing” and other aspects of appearance to visually guide readers through the document, thus enabling them to concentrate on the content. For more information, refer to the “Style” portion of this handbook.

Students must submit the thesis or dissertation, with the required Content Pages, for the final formatting review prior to submitting to ProQuest for final processing. The student and Faculty Advisor or Dissertation Chair signatures on the Format Review Form indicate that editing and formatting have been reviewed prior to submitting the required Content Pages to ProQuest for the final format check and approval. The final format check and approval ensures that the required Content Pages adhere to the UWG style requirements. Content is not reviewed for spelling, punctuation, or writing style by the Format Reviewer.

The required Content Pages include:

| 1. Title Page | 7. Preface (optional page) |
| 2. Signature Page | 8. Vita (optional page) |
| 3. Abstract | 9. Table of Contents |
| 4. Copyright | 10. List of Tables or Figures |
| 5. Dedication (optional page) | 11. First page of any one chapter |
| 6. Acknowledgements (optional page) | 12. Reference Pages |

The Graduate School created a template style guide suitable for use in place of style manuals that automatically formats the document with instructions for students. The template can be downloaded here.

Arrangement of Thesis or Dissertation Parts

|---|--|
| Title Page (i) | Assigned the small Roman numeral (i) although it is not typed on the page |
| Abstract (iii) | Small Roman numeral page numbers, beginning with “iii” on the first page of the Abstract, are assigned and typed at the center at the bottom of the page below the one-inch margin in the footer of the document. |
| Optional Pages: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Copyright (iv),• Dedication (v),• Acknowledgments (vi),• Preface (vii)• Vita (viii) | |
| Table of Contents (ix) | Proceeds the last roman numeral of the optional page added (e.g. TOC would be vi if after dedication) |
| List of Tables, Figures, or Illustrations | Proceeds the roman numeral of the last page of the Table of Contents |
| Body of Text | The text should be arranged in sections consistently in accordance with the appropriate style manual or template provided by the Graduate School. The pages of the text should be numbered in Arabic numerals and start at 1 after the roman numerals. The first page of chapter 1 should not bear a number; however, the second page and all subsequent pages of the text should have a number in the upper right corner within the right margin and above the top one-inch margin. |
| References | List of references in the format prescribed by the discipline-specific style guide following the text. |
| Appendix (optional section) | The first page after References should state “Appendices” and remain blank with the following Appendix labeled A, B, C, etc.) |

GENERAL POLICIES AND REGULATIONS

Student Integrity

Conferral of a degree implies personal integrity and ability to perform within the framework of scholarly methods. Three areas in which graduate students should be particularly cautious are the following:

1. Proper acknowledgment of cited works as set forth in discipline-specific style guides to prevent unintentional acts of plagiarism.
2. Use of copyrighted material. See the Copyright Law of the United States <http://www.loc.gov/copyright/>
3. Proper reporting of work subject to federal compliance regulations (e.g., use of human subjects). See the UWG websites:
<https://www.westga.edu/academics/research/orsp/irb-faq.php>

Proquest Submission Procedures

The student has full responsibility for ensuring all copies of the thesis or dissertation are correct in content and form for submission to Proquest for review. Once completed, the student should submit their request here.

Compare the formatting of the required Content Pages to that of the sample Content Pages included in the appendix of this handbook. Before uploading to ProQuest, confirmation from the Thesis Advisor or Dissertation Chair of a successful defense and a signed copy of the format review form is required.

The Content Pages include:

1. Title Page
2. Signature Page
3. Abstract
4. Copyright, Dedication, Acknowledgements, Preface (optional pages)
5. Vita (optional page)
6. Table of Contents
7. List of Tables or Figures, if applicable
8. First page of any one chapter
9. Reference Pages.

When the thesis or dissertation is completed, and required Content Pages approved by faculty, the student should submit the Proquest Review request form and attach a PDF of their dissertation. After receiving the signed form and pdf, the student will be sent directions and the appropriate website to upload the final document to ProQuest.

Submit the thesis or dissertation to ProQuest by the deadlines listed below:

- Spring Graduation April 1
- Summer Graduation July 1
- Fall Graduation November 1

*If the deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, then it is due on the following workday by 5:00 p.m.

UWG STYLE GUIDE

The Graduate School created a Microsoft Word Template that automates all of the information below for convenience. Please visit <https://www.westga.edu/academics/gradstudies/theses-dissertations.php> for a link to the Word Template.

Typeface

Times Roman or Times New Roman 12 (twelve) point fonts must be used throughout the document. Superscript characters should be no smaller than two points smaller than the font used for the body of the text.

Margins

All copies of a thesis or dissertation must have uniform margins. The page margins should be as follows:

1. One inch on the left, right, top, and bottom of page.
2. Two inch top margin on specific pages. (Title Page, Signature Page, and the first pages of the Abstract, Dedication, Acknowledgement, Preface, Vita, Table of Contents, List of Tables and Figures, Sections or Chapters, Bibliography/References/Works Cited and Appendix/Appendices). In MS Word, Continuous Section breaks are used to establish different margins for different pages within the same document. Page two, and subsequent pages of any of the above-named sections, returns to the one inch top margin.

Spacing

Spacing should be double for the entire text body.

Pagination

Each page of the thesis or dissertation must be assigned a number even though the number does not always appear. Small Roman numerals (i, ii, iii, iv, etc.) are used on all pages preceding the first page of chapter one. This includes the Copyright Page, Abstract, Dedication Page, Vita, Acknowledgement(s), Preface, Table of Contents, List of Figures, etc. The first page to display a number will be page iii (the Abstract); the Title Page counts as page i and the Signature Page as page ii, but the numbers do not appear on these pages. The small Roman numeral page numbers are located below the bottom one inch margin in the center of the page. See the sample Content Pages for a visual of this placement.

Arabic numerals (1, 2, 3, etc.) begin with the second page of Chapter One and include the body/text of the document, illustrations, appendices, notes, reference list, or bibliography and pages of visual material. Avoid page numbers that use letters, hyphens, periods, or parentheses:

Most word processing systems have a setting that controls “widows” and “orphans” on a printed page. A widow is a single line of text at the bottom of a page, with the rest of a paragraph continuing the next page; an orphan is a single line of text at the top of a page, with the rest of the paragraph left behind on the previous page. Because widows and orphans are unacceptable, be sure to activate the widow/orphan setting that controls page breaks before printing out the final copy of the thesis or dissertation.

CONTENT PAGES

Title Page

The title page should conform to the sample Title Page included in the Appendix. The title should be centered, with a two-inch margin from the top of the page, all upper case letters. If the title is longer than one line, it should be double-spaced with the longer line of text first. After an additional double-spaced line, insert “by” in lower case letters.

Another double-spaces below, insert [student name] using all upper case letters. The student’s name must appear as he/she is registered at the University of West Georgia.

Eight spaces down, four double-spaced lines, or less if the title is more than one line, a similar statement should be added, “A [Thesis or Dissertation] Submitted to the Graduate Faculty of the University of West Georgia in Partial Fulfillment of the Requirements for the Degree of [Name of Degree]” using both upper and lower case letters. The wording should be modified as necessary for each student, program and degree. Another eight spaces, four double-spaced lines, below this statement, enter “CARROLLTON, GEORGIA” using upper case letters. The submission year should be

Refer to the corresponding sample Signature Page included in the Appendix for a visual of these instructions. The Signature Page contains the signatures of the thesis or dissertation committee members and the Dean of the College or School supervising the program. It indicates that the content and format of the thesis or dissertation are appropriate and acceptable.

As with the Title Page, the title should be centered, with a two inch margin at the top of the page using all upper case letters. After a double-space line, two single spaces, add “by” in lower case letters. Another double-space below, insert [student name] using all upper case letters. The student’s name must appear as it does on the Title Page.

The committee members’ signature lines, for three committee members, should begin ten spaces, five double-spaces, or less if the title is more than one line, below the student’s name, aligned 3.5 (three and one half) inches from the one inch left margin. Insert “Approved:” on the first line, then the signature line should be placed on the third single spaced line below. Extend the line to the right one-inch margin. Type the committee chair’s name one single space below the signature line. The line below the typed name identifies the person as the “Thesis Advisor” or “Dissertation Chair.”

For committees consisting of four members, the “Approved:” section should begin six single spaces, three double-spaces, or less if the title is more than one line, below the student name aligned 3.5 (three and one half) inches from the one inch left margin. Following the same pattern, three lines below, add another signature line for a committee member. Type the committee member’s name one space below the signature line. One line below the name, identify the person as “Committee Member.” This is repeated for each committee member.

Abstract

Refer to the corresponding sample Abstract page included in the Appendix for a visual of these instructions. Policy requires the submission of an Abstract with each thesis or dissertation. Although the content of the Abstract is determined by the student and committee, the following information is standard: 1) a short statement concerning the area of investigation; 2) a brief discussion of methods and procedures used in gathering the data; 3) a condensed summary of the findings, and/or 4) conclusions reached in the study.

“ABSTRACT” should appear, centered on the line, two inches from the top of the page using all upper case letters. One double-space below, or two single spaces, enter the student’s name, using all upper case letters, followed by a colon, then the title of the thesis or dissertation using upper and lower case letters. A single space below the student name and title, in parentheses, add “Under the direction of [insert name of Thesis Advisor or Dissertation Chair].” The double- spaced text of the Abstract should begin two double-spaces, four single spaces, below this information. The second page, if applicable, returns to the one inch top margin.

Copyright

Refer to the corresponding sample page included in the Appendix for a visual of these instructions. This page shows that the thesis or dissertation has been copyrighted. The student’s thesis or dissertation committee can provide insights as to if the thesis or dissertation should be copyrighted or not. The copyright symbol (©) and the year begins twenty double spaces, forty single spaces, below the top one inch margin. One single space below, enter the student’s name as it appears on the previous pages, using upper and lower case letters. Another single space below should read, “ALL RIGHTS RESERVED” using upper case letters.

Dedication (optional)

Refer to the corresponding sample page included in the Appendix for a visual of these instructions. If the student wishes to dedicate the thesis or dissertation, the dedication statement is included on this page. “DEDICATION” should appear two inches from the top of the page in all upper case letters. The second and subsequent pages of the double- spaced text, if applicable, return to the one inch top margin.

Acknowledgments (optional)

Refer to the corresponding sample page included in the Appendix for a visual of these instructions. This page is used to thank those who have helped in the process of obtaining the graduate degree. Permission to quote copyrighted material is listed here, as well as acknowledgment for grants and special funding. “ACKNOWLEDGEMENT” should appear two inches from the top of the page using all upper case letters. Subsequent pages should begin at the one inch top margin. Text should be double-spaced.

Preface (optional)

Refer to the corresponding sample page included in the Appendix for a visual of these instructions. A personal statement about the purpose and scope of the thesis or dissertation would be included in the preface. The tone of a preface, however, must be academic and appropriate to scholarly work. “PREFACE” should appear two inches from the top of the page using all upper case letters. Subsequent pages should begin at the one inch top margin. Text should be double-spaced.

Vita (optional)

Refer to the corresponding sample page included in the Appendix for a visual of these instructions. “Vita” should appear two inches from the top of the page using all upper case letters. The one-page Vita presents the student’s educational and professional experience related to the discipline. It also presents the student’s major areas of study. The Vita contains appropriate academic and professional information about the author/student.

Personal information should not be included. Text may include both single and double-spaces.

Table of Contents

Refer to the corresponding sample page included in the Appendix for a visual of these instructions. The Table of Contents may vary in style and amount of information included and contain both single and double-spaces. Chapter or Section titles, the Bibliography/List of References, the Appendix, if used, and the Vita should be included. Page numbers shown in the Table of Contents for the Appendix/Appendices must be the number assigned to the single page or the title sheet preceding each multiple page section. Refer to the “Appendix/Appendices” section for more details. There should not be a title sheet preceding the List of References or Bibliographies. Although it is not necessary to include all levels of headings, any inclusion must be consistent. If a particular level is included at any point, all headings of that level must be included. All pages, including the preliminary pages beginning with page three, the Abstract, must be listed in the Table of Contents.

Page one of the Table of Contents begins with a two inch margin from the top of the page. The second and subsequent pages, if applicable, return to the one inch top margin.

List of Tables, Figures, or Illustrations

Refer to the corresponding sample page included in the Appendix for a visual of these instructions. If there are five or more tables or figures in the thesis or dissertation, a List of Tables, a List of Figures, and/or List of Illustrations must be included after the Table of Contents. Any tables, figures, or illustrations appearing in the appendix must also be included in the list. Each title must be unique, and all titles must be entered in the Lists worded exactly as they appear on the table, figure, or illustration.

Body of Text

The primary rule is to conform to the current discipline-specific style manual when presenting the text of the thesis or dissertation. The thesis or dissertation must be divided into a logical system that is followed consistently throughout the document. Chapters are the most common division, but sections and parts are also permissible. Chapter or section numbers and titles are primary divisions of the entire document.

Each major division (chapter or section) must have a title, be numbered consecutively throughout the document, and begin on a new page. The chapter number and title should begin two inches below the top of the page. The second and subsequent pages return to the one inch top margin.

Tables, Figures, and Illustrations

Tables, figures, or illustrations should not be larger than the space within the margins. If smaller than a full page, then place the table, figure, or illustration at the top of the page at the one-inch margin.

Tables are usually quantitative in nature and should be organized so that entries that are to be compared are next to one another. Table labels are situated above each table.

Illustrative visual material, such as a photograph, map, line drawing, graph, or chart, should be called a figure. Because figures are considered illustrations or diagrams and may be imported from an external source, any text that is part of the figure can be in any typeface, provided it is neat and legible. The figure number and title must be in the same typeface as the rest of the thesis or dissertation because this material is considered a part of the typeset body of the document. A figure containing several related parts too large to be included on a single page may be continued onto other pages. The first page contains the figure number and complete title below the figure and subsequent pages contain the remainder of the figure.

Each table, figure, or illustration must have a unique title descriptive of its contents; no two titles can be exactly the same. The number and title must appear above each table and below each figure. Figures/tables containing parts must be given a general title, after which the figure/table may be broken down into separate parts, as in a), b), etc. For multiple part figures/tables, the title may be composite, with no references to individual parts, or integrated, with titles for each part as part of the general title. The style of the titles must be consistent for all figures/tables.

Because tables, figures and illustrations are separate entities, they must be numbered independently. Number all tables, figures, and illustrations with Arabic numerals in the order in which they are first mentioned in the text (e.g., Tables 5, 6, and 7). Do not use suffix letters or combine related tables into one table.

Tables, figures and illustrations must be referenced in text by number, not by expressions such as “in the following table/figure.” When more than one table/figure is referenced on a page of text, each follows in the order mentioned until all have been placed before the text starts again. In degree of importance, tables/figures are secondary to the text. This means that all text pages must be filled with text and in no case should they be left significantly free of text because of the mention of a table/figure

Tables, figures, and illustrations should be incorporated within the body of the text, rather than in the appendix. It is recommended that tables/figures be assigned pages separate from the text to avoid problems in shifting during last-minute revisions. For example, on a separate page immediately following the text page where the table was first referenced (e.g., Table 1 is referenced on page 7; page 7 is a full page of text; Table 1 is placed by itself on page 8; the text starts again on page 9). However, if the student wishes to incorporate tables/figures within the text, the following criteria must be met:

- table/figure must be separated from the text by extra space (approximately ½ inch),
- table/figure cannot be continued onto a following page,
- table/figure must be placed at top or bottom of page, never center/near center of page.

There should be a balance of no less than one-half page of text and no more than one-half page of table/figure. If multiple tables/figures are mentioned together on a page, they may be placed on pages together, provided there is approximately ½ inch between each table/figure. It is not necessary to designate as figures small diagrams or drawings, or to designate as tables compilations that are no more than a three lines in length.

To accommodate large tables/figures, it is sometimes necessary to orient them horizontally on the page as the one-inch margins should be maintained. Page numbers on horizontally oriented pages should be placed in such a way that is consistent with the established pattern. The table/figure and its caption must be placed so that it can be read when the document is turned 90-degrees clockwise.

Bibliography/References/Works Cited

A thesis or dissertation must include a list of materials used in the preparation of the document.

This may consist of only references cited in the text (e.g., List of References) or may also include works consulted, but not cited in text (e.g., Bibliography). The purpose of listing the citations is threefold:

1. To serve as an acknowledgment of sources,
2. To give readers sufficient information to locate the material,
3. In the case of personal interviews or correspondence, to save the reader the trouble of attempting to locate material that is not available.

The discipline-specific title of this section should be placed two inches from the top of the page with the first entry appearing one double-space below. Subsequent pages should begin at the one inch top margin. The format used for the references section should conform to the current discipline-specific style manual. References cannot be collected at the end of chapters or sections, only at the end of the document.

Appendix /Appendices

The Appendix is a useful device to make available material relevant to the text but not suitable for inclusion in it. An Appendix, if included, is preceded by a title or separation sheet with the title, Appendix, Appendixes, or Appendices, two inches below the top of the page. This sheet is assigned a page number. Appendix material cannot be collected at the end of chapters or sections, only at the end of the document.

If the student wishes to subdivide the appendix, the subsections must follow a logical division. Each separate appendix either has an additional title or a separation sheet with the number or letter (1, 2, 3 or A, B, C) and the title two inches below the top of the page with material beginning on next page. Avoid page numbers that use letters, hyphens, periods, or parentheses: 1a, 1-2, (1).

ABSTRACT

WOLFIE P. WOLF: Dissertation Example of Proper Formatting for the University of West
Georgia
(Under the direction of Dr. Jane Doe)

The Heading Information above is centered on the page while the text of the abstract is left-justified. The abstract for the thesis or dissertation can be no longer than 250 words. The abstract must be double-spaced, consistent with the entire body of the thesis or dissertation.

DEDICATION

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Acknowledgments are the author’s statement of gratitude to and recognition of the people and institutions who helped the author’s research and writing. There is no length limit to text in the ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. The text should be double-spaced.

PREFACE [OPTIONAL]

Type the text of the preface here, below its heading, which is set 2” (two inches) from the top of a new page. Subsequent pages of text return to the 1” (one inch) top margin. Normally, a preface is a statement of the author’s reasons for undertaking the work and other personal comments which are not directly germane to the materials presented in the literature review and the research methods chapters of the thesis or dissertation. These reasons tend to be of a personal nature. There is no length limit to text in the PREFACE. The text should be double-spaced.

Heading 2 is information apart of Heading 1. For example, Heading 1 is Major League Baseball and Heading 2 could be history of major league baseball.

Heading 3

Heading 3 is a subset of heading 2, which is a subset of heading 1. So in this case, under history of major league baseball, a third heading could be MLB during WWII.
