Dual Enrollment
Area high school students interested in the Dual Enrollment program at Newnan or Carrollton may email our Dual Enrollment Coordinator at dualenroll@westga.edu.

The Carrollton Campus and Newnan Center both have personnel available to assist with the application process for UWG. If prospective students have any questions about how to apply, please email us at admiss@westga.edu.

Fully online students do not have to turn in immunization records; however, students must complete the form below to request exemption each and every semester. Fill out the top and bottom (Distance Learning portions) of the Immunization Form found at this UWG Health Services link. Check the last box for the distance learning exemption and then email a copy to immunize@westga.edu. Please also copy your UWG eMajor Liaison, Morgan Kirby, so they can help follow up. It can take up to 3 business days for your exemption to be processed.

Students should be able to check their registration holds by logging in to Banweb via OneLogin (under Student Services and Financial Aid > Student Records > View Holds).

Students in a fully online graduate degree program should be exempt from the immunization requirement until they are no longer an online learner.

Veterans and Military Programs
UWG offers several online programs to meet the needs of veterans as they pursue their educational goals or make the transition into a different career. However, sometimes returning to school takes a little extra support. In addition to UWG’s Veterans and Military Programs Office, some of the resources we offer to adult learners include:
- Tutoring
- Knowledgeable advisors
- Prior Learning Assessments
- Flexible classes - Online, evening, short sessions. Some of our flexible undergraduate and graduate degrees available are in areas such as:
  - Business

Same as F2F with the following addition:

The Newnan Office of Student Services’ Student Development Specialist refers adult learners and military-connected students to the Center for Adult Learners and Veterans for assistance.
| Orientation | All incoming degree-seeking UWG undergraduate students are required to register for and complete an Orientation program.

Students taking at least one on-campus course are expected to register for, attend and fully participate in an on-campus Orientation program.

Access to resources is communicated to students through the course syllabi, university websites, email announcements, face-to-face orientations, (online student orientation available within our course management system, CourseDen), myUWG portal announcements, and the UWG student Handbook.

All students, whether online or not, are enrolled in a free Non-Credit course within the CourseDen learning management system. The course covers orientation topics, available student services, and allows the students to practice using the technology and tools.

Same as F2F with the following addition:

Students whose campus code is NET or who intend to take ALL of their classes online may register for Online Orientation.

These optional resources are available online for students.

Additionally, all online instructors are provided with narrated and non-narrated orientation presentations, as well as a complete Orientation module that may be included within their online class. The module reviews services, as well as navigation of the course management system, how to use each of the tools, practice assignments, and information on how to get help. For those enrolled in hybrid courses, we sponsor multiple drop-in sessions, set up help tables outside busy locations, offer to do in-class demonstrations, and participate in the on-campus orientations.

UWG eCore & UWG eMajor:
All students taking UWG eCore & UWG eMajor classes must complete an online Introduction
Quiz (eCore Intro Quiz; eMajor Intro Quiz) prior to registration. The introduction provides students with critical information about course success as well as what to expect in their online course. In addition, the eCampus Student Success Managers send a Getting Started Letter to all students enrolled in either a UWG eCore or UWG eMajor class at the beginning of the term. Students may also refer to the online student guides (eCore Student Guide; and eMajor Student Guide).

Also, all registered UWG eCore & UWG eMajor students are encouraged to login early to the online course management system GoVIEW, and complete an additional UWG eCore & UWG eMajor Student Orientation course called eConnections.

All UWG eCore & UWG eMajor courses also include a course-specific orientation within the first week’s lesson. Specific degree programs may have additional orientation requirements.

The Newnan Office of Student Services refers first year Newnan Center students to the Orientation Office’s website to register for one of the upcoming sessions.

Courses are provided within our online learning management system (CourseDen D2L) for advising based on at-risk situations or majors.

UWG eCore & UWG eMajor:

While online UWG eCore & UWG eMajor students are still directed to consult with an advisor in their program of study or the Advising Center, UWG eCore & UWG eMajor students are also assigned UWG eCore/eMajor Liaisons. They are knowledgeable about all issues associated with admissions, registration, student services, and success in the UWG eCore & UWG eMajor program. The Liaisons and central UWG eCore & UWG eMajor Student Success Manager and accompanying Student Success Team members contact the online UWG eCore & UWG eMajor students frequently via Google groups, with tidbits of helpful information and reminders. The UWG eCore & UWG eMajor Student Success Team also takes at-risk reports from all eCore instructors and follows up with at-risk students by email, phone, or text.

| Testing and Evaluation | All students benefit from the testing services at the Academic Testing Services office at the University of West Georgia. Academic Testing Services provides departmental, institutional, and national testing opportunities to students and non-students in an atmosphere which enables examinees to perform to the best of their abilities. This atmosphere relies on test administration practices which (1) adhere to nationally recognized professional testing standards and government regulations, (2) maintain the integrity of the testing process by incorporating ethical standards and security measures, and (3) treat all examinees in a professional yet personable manner.

The UWG Academic Testing Services Office adheres to the Standards and Guidelines of the National College Testing Association Carrollton Academic Testing Center. Students can arrange services by calling or emailing the Testing Office. The Academic Testing Services Office provides a variety of test registration materials and also administers a series of national and institutional exams. The Academic Testing Services Office also provides a supervised environment for students with documented physical and/or learning disabilities who are eligible to receive accommodations, such as extended time for the classroom tests and any other accommodations they may need. The Testing Office provides test proctoring services to UWG students, including online and eCore students, as well as to other institutions and various entities such as licensing boards, for employment testing, and national testing companies for a small fee.

Please contact both testing centers for schedules of tests that are available at each center.

Carrollton Academic Testing Services | Same as F2F with the following additions:

Off-campus students often take proctored exams administered by their professors or at approved off-campus locations. The Newnan Center also provides test proctoring services on site. Off-campus and distance students can use approved proctoring sites at other university libraries, approved testing sites worldwide, or approved virtual testing options.

Exams and quizzes can be administered via CourseDen (D2L) either online at a location convenient to the student or a designated computer lab.

Some students who take their CourseDen (D2L) exams in a computer lab use Respondus Lockdown Browser as an additional means of security and integrity.

Instructors who teach courses that are mostly online have the option of using UWG Online's online Exam Proctoring Services. Students schedule their tests at a center convenient to them, and the UWG Online Testing Coordinator provides the proctor with the password. Proctors confirm the identity of the student, enter the password through the course management, maintain physical proximity to the student, and ensure exam integrity.

UWG Newnan Center offers proctoring services to students taking eCore, UWG Online, and online courses from other universities (for a small fee). Students make appointments with Newnan staff to have midterm and final exams proctored at UWG Newnan.

UWG eCore
All eCore courses contain at least one proctored assessment experience or one major project of significance that includes a recorded video presentation for identify verification. Students may review their course syllabus to determine the course requirements.

If an eCore course requires a proctored exam, students may complete their proctored experience with an approved testing center or online proctoring service. The cost of a proctored exam may vary depending on the selected proctoring service/site. Students may review more information about eCore Proctored Experiences on the website.

<td>Health Services</td>
<td>Medical Services: Student Health Services provide a wide range of medical services to UWG students, ranging from preventative medicine to acute illnesses/injury to chronic conditions. If you have a condition that we cannot manage here, we can refer you to a specialist. Pharmacy Services: Here at the pharmacy we provide medications from our formulary to help improve your health. The majority of prescriptions written by our providers are filled on site.</td>
<td>Medical Services: Exclusively online students are not automatically charged the health fee. However, they can elect to pay the $101 fee each semester in order to access campus medical services. The fee can be paid online or through the BanWeb account or at the Office of Student Accounts and Billing Services.</td>

Immunization Guidelines: It is the policy of the University of West Georgia to comply with the mandatory immunization program established by the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia. Prior to registering for classes at UWG, students must provide proof of the required immunizations.

Advocacy Services: Students who wish to explore options for treatment of conditions such as stress, anxiety, depression, eating disorders, alcohol or other drug concerns may schedule an appointment with an Advocate for assistance with assessment and/or referral sources.

Confidential Victim Services: An advocate together with a sexual assault nurse examiner from Health Services are on call 24/7 to provide confidential guidance and medical services to victims of sexual assault, intimate partner or domestic violence, stalking, and other violent crimes.

Health Education: Health Education, within the University of West Georgia, takes a proactive approach for providing quality personal health and wellness education.

UWG Health Services delivers comprehensive, high quality healthcare in an efficient, confidential and caring manner. Students taking at least one class on campus are charged the student health fee as part of their tuition and fees and are eligible to receive medical services at the Health Center. Exclusively online students may choose to pay the student health fee and be eligible for services*. The Health Fee provides students access to campus medical services provided by a team of medical professionals dedicated to student health and wellness. The fee covers many services entirely while others carry additional charges. For more information on the services and fees, please contact Health Services at 678-839-6452.

Advocacy Services: All enrolled students, including exclusively online students, are eligible for Advocacy Services which include medical, academic, and victim advocacy. Trained Advocates and a Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner are on call 24/7 to respond to victims of sexual assault, intimate partner violence, and/or stalking.

Health Education Services: All students are eligible for Health Education Services. Health Educators and a team of trained Peer Educators provide evidence based health education and wellness programs. Class and group presentations, guest speakers, and interactive activities are offered each semester.

Online students can contact Health Services at 678-839-6452 for additional information regarding all of the above services.

| Student Complaint Process/Grade Challenges | The students’ rights, the procedures, and the policies for all student complaints (whether academic or non-academic) are outlined in the UWG Student Handbook. See the Index and the Student Handbook’s Appendices for various applicable information. UWG Non-discrimination Statement UWG does not permit discrimination or harassment in our workplace, programs or activities on the basis of sex, race, national origin, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, age, religion, or any other characteristic protected by institutional policy or state, local, or federal law. If an individual believes that he or she has been discriminated against, please contact the Social Equity/Title IX Office to file a report. Please be reminded that all UWG employees with the exception of counselors and health services personnel are mandatory reporters and must report acts of sexual misconduct to the Social Equity/Title IX Office. Phone: 678-839-4977 Fax: 678-839-4798 The Office of Equal Opportunity & Title IX | Exception for online students:

For processes that cannot be completed via telephone, e-mail, or written correspondence, the university may set up a two-way video-conference site in place of a meeting on the UWG campus. UWG Online strives to help resolve student grievances, complaints and concerns in an expeditious, fair and amicable manner.

- UWG Online has no decision-making authority but advocates, informs, and may be able to help provide documentation related to student complaints.
- Complaints are received in-person, via phone, email, chat, or text. At times, other UWG units may escalate complaints submitted to them directly or via one of the student complain forms made available at The Office of Community Standards. |
● A UWG Online Help Desk agent will research the student issue and escalate concern to related department or organizational representative, as necessary, advocating and assisting in providing relevant information where appropriate.

● Every interaction with the UWG Online Help Desk generates a ticket that documents the complaint and is assigned to a UWG Online agent for follow up that same business day, offering possible solutions and informing students of their rights if the situation warrants.

● Any complaint not able to be resolved by the Help Desk agent is escalated to the Director of UWG Online or the UWG Online Help Desk Manager. Office of Community Standards.

● Complaints escalated to the Director of UWG Online or the UWG Online Help Desk Manager, or those received directly by these personnel, are either received in writing via mail or the conversations is documented in writing afterwards.

● Regardless of the avenue through which the complaint is received, all complaints are recorded in the Help Desk ticketing system and students receive follow-up until the complaint is resolved.

For assistance, please contact UWG online at 678-839-6248, online@westga.edu, or via chat on the UWG Online website.

UWG eCore & UWG eMajor:
UWG students taking online courses via a collaborative agreement have an additional route that they may pursue, for help with academic and non-academic issues through the student forms and withdrawal pages.
