

ACADEMIC HONORS CONVOCATION

APRIL 23, 2024 | 5:30 PM | TOWNSEND CENTER

ACADEMIC HONORS CONVOCATION

For over five decades, The University of West Georgia has recognized the achievements of its superior students in a variety of ways. From 1964 to 1970, at Parent's Day, students and faculty convened, the latter in academic regalia. From 1971 to 1975, this assembly was termed the Honors Convocation. A luncheon replaced the Convocation from 1976 through 1985. The Honors Convocation was reestablished in 1986. Though the form has varied on these occasions, the University has consistently hosted noted speakers, among them former Governor Carl Sanders, consumer advocate Ralph Nader, the late Georgia Secretary of State Ben Forston, former Chancellors of the University System of Georgia Dr. Stephen R. Portch and Dr. H. Dean Propst, and Emory University Eleonore Raol Professor of the Humanities Dr. Elizabeth Fox-Genovesse. This year, we are honored that faculty and students in the Music and Theatre Programs of the University of West Georgia will perform. We have performances by the UWG Chamber Singers, led by Dr. Karen Graffius and the UWG Theatre Department will present, "A Brand New Day in New Jersey," from Joe DiPietro's The Toxic Avenger.

The Honors College at the University of West Georgia was initiated as an Honors Program in Spring 1975. It was elevated to Honors College by the Board of Regents in June 1999. It seeks to provide intellectually gifted students an educational experience commensurate with their abilities. The University is affiliated with the Georgia Collegiate Honors Council, the Southern Regional Collegiate Honors Council, and the National Collegiate Honors Council. Supported by the faculty and administration of the four colleges of the university, the School of Nursing, the School of Communication, Film and Media, and the Library, and organized by the Honors College.

The student chosen must be representative of outstanding scholastic achievement on his or her campus, have a GPA of 4.0 or very close to it, be an undergraduate, and be a resident of Georgia.
