Service

Projects led for the University and Community

2022-23: Co-Organizer, Carrollton Collects Exhibition 2023

- Carrollton Collects is a thematic exhibition series that ran annually from 1983 to 1992, with two additional shows in 2004 and 2011. This exhibition showcases museum-quality art from Carrollton and the West Georgia region. The 2023 show marked the first Carrollton Collects exhibition in 12 years. In collaboration with retired UWG Department of Art Chair, Bruce Bobick, and the Carrollton Center for the Arts (CCA), I co-organized the exhibition. Professor Bobick curated the exhibition while I served as a liaison between UWG and the CCA. My main responsibilities included collecting and photographing artwork, coordinating assistance for creating the exhibition catalog, and assisting in planning the opening VIP reception.

2022-23: Co-Organizer, Collecting Carrollton Art Auction 2023

- This art auction, held in conjunction with the Carrollton Collects exhibition, generated nearly $11,000 in sales for participating artists. Approximately $3,000 of the proceeds were directed towards the UWG General Art Scholarship fund, providing support to students. As a co-planner for the event and a liaison between the University and Carrollton Center for the Arts, I played a key role in organizing and facilitating the auction.

2009-Present: Founder and Organizer, Howl for UWG Public Art Project

- With the support of the UWG Art Program and UWG Advancement, I conceptualized and spearheaded the Howl for UWG public art project. This transformative project involved the display of over 20+ painted wolves across the Carrollton and Carroll County area. The project successfully raised $75,000 in gross revenue, with approximately $40,000 contributed to the UWG General Scholarship Fund. A significant portion of the funds ($25,000) was allocated to establish the Bruce Bobick Scholarship Endowment, which provides financial assistance to first-year art students.

2008-Present: Founder & Organizer, Carve on the Quad

- Carve on the Quad is an annual pumpkin carving competition that was specifically designed as a retention aid for first-year art students at UWG. This engaging event is held in partnership with UWG Housing's Safe Treat community trick-or-treating event, and each year, over 150 creatively carved and painted pumpkins are displayed. Serving as a premier Halloween trick-or-treating experience for the community, Safe Treat attracts an average attendance of approximately 1,500 people from both the campus and the local community

Leadership Development

2023-24 Executive Leadership Institute (ELI) Scholar, University System of Georgia

- The Executive Leadership Institute is a comprehensive 120-hour development program facilitated by leading experts in leadership. Throughout the year, my experience consisted of eight leadership sessions with the Leader’s Lyceum, which included a 360 evaluation, personality assessments, and leadership development. I also had the honor of shadowing Dr. Ivan Pulinkala for one week as part of the program. He serves as the Provost at Kennesaw State University, and my experience with him included one-on-one meetings and numerous meetings with the KSU leadership team.
